SOUTH AUSTRALIA

A state of contrasts

South Australian Regions

- Adelaide
- Adelaide Hills
- Barossa Valley
- Clare Valley
- Eyre Peninsula
- Fleurieu Peninsula
- Flinders Ranges & Outback
- Kangaroo Island
- Limestone Coast
- Riverland
- Yorke Peninsula

Known for its vast array of world-class wine regions, stunning natural beauty, deliciously fresh produce and gourmet delights, some of the best beaches in Australia and cultural festivals to rival those around the country – South Australia is brimming with wonders.

You can spend hours exploring the city with a morning visit to the Adelaide Central Market followed by a casual stroll along the Torrens Riverbank near the historic University of Adelaide. Eat your way through the restaurant-filled East End before experiencing the multitude of bars in the West End.

Watch rolling pastures pass you by, visit historic old towns and meet friendly locals as you journey outside the city. Let your travels take you to contrasting landscapes around the state where you'll enjoy stretches of isolated beaches, world-class wine regions, untouched natural wonders and wildlife experiences that get you back in touch with nature.

With accommodation and touring options around the state to suit every budget and taste, there's no time like the present to get to know the city and state better. South Australia and its many natural, man-made and gourmet wonders are just waiting for you to explore.

ADELAIDE

Adelaide, South Australia's capital, is a city of transformation

Wander along North Terrace and marvel at the historic architecture of the Art Gallery of South Australia, University of Adelaide and South Australian Museum before heading to lively Rundle Street for a bite to eat. Grab a coffee and people watch in bustling Rundle Mall or head to the stunning Adelaide Botanic Gardens for an afternoon of relaxation amongst calming nature.

The city of Adelaide is continually surprising both tourists and locals alike with new bars, boutiques, cafes, restaurants and various accommodations popping up around the city. Explore the small side streets in the West of the CBD, including Peel Street and Leigh Street, and you're bound to stumble across a vibrant cocktail lounge or underground bar.

Why not take in a festival or two? From the famous Adelaide Fringe to the international productions found at the Adelaide Festival, Oz Asia and the Adelaide Cabaret Festival, you will be spoilt for choice. Food and wine aficionados will feel at home at events like Tasting Australia, Cellar Door Fest and the Adelaide Beer & BBQ Festival.

Quaint, picturesque & an easy drive from Adelaide

Roughly a 30-minute drive just outside the city you can escape to the Adelaide Hills where quaint suburbs and local towns provide the perfect place to grab a coffee and cake, plus more wineries than you'll know what to do with.

Experience the changing colours of the rolling hills and tree-lined streets as you explore the area. A wander around the German town of Hahndorf will provide you with authentic Bavarian dining options plus plenty of opportunities to pick up unique hand-made souvenirs.

Get back to nature with a walk through Waterfall Gully to the summit of Mount Lofty for views over Adelaide and the surrounding hills or take a casual stroll through the Mount Lofty Botanic Gardens.

From a short day trip, long-weekend escape or a stopover on your way through to another great South Australian region, there's plenty to keep you entertained in the Adelaide Hills.

OUR TOP TIPS

- Choose from one of the many cosy coffee spots in Stirling and Aldgate
- Wander through the German town of Hahndorf and taste Bavarian style platters and beers
- Enjoy a wonderland of spring or autumn colours at Mount Lofty Botanic Gardens
- Sample the range of world-renowned products and pick fresh strawberries (Nov-Apr) at the famous Beerenberg Farm
- Try an award-winning Gruner Veltliner at the Hahndorf Hills Winery

BAROSSA VALLEY

A world-famous wine region at our doorstep

There are plenty of reasons why South Australia is known world-wide for its delicious wine and much of this is thanks to the famed Barossa Valley region. Spend your days visiting famous wineries including Seppeltsfield, Jacob's Creek and Penfolds or explore smaller cellar doors – there's wine for every budget. Why not hop on a tour and let the locals show you their favourite spots?

Take the time to enjoy the area's local eateries who pride themselves on making the mouth-watering most of local produce which will of course be paired with the perfect wine selection. Lunch at the award-winning Hentley Farm and dinner at fermentAsian are Barossa bucket-list items.

Give yourself plenty of time to explore the region by staying a couple of nights, plus you've got a range of retreat-ready properties to enjoy. Cosy up in a quaint cottage, enjoy the luxuries of a modern resort or give glamping a go!

OUR TOP TIPS

- Enjoy a multitude of world-class wineries on a day tour – no designated driver needed!
- Wander down the charming main street of Tanunda and discover quirky boutiques, antique stores and gourmet eateries
- Sip world-class wine while gazing over picturesque rows of vineyards
- Check out the view from Mengler Hill Lookout then explore the Barossa Sculpture Park below

CLARE VALLEY

Heritage towns, the Riesling Trail & aromatic white wines

Known as the home of Australian Riesling, this wine region has been producing these aromatic white wines for over 150 years. You'll find plenty of cellar doors spread throughout the area to taste the area's famed produce, best explored by bike on the famous Riesling Trail.

Start your day with a walk down the main street of Clare and greet friendly locals, enjoy a gourmet picnic amongst the vines for lunch, before finishing your day with dinner and cocktails at Seed Winehouse + Kitchen in the town's main street.

Explore the region's hilly countryside, ever-changing with the colours of the vineyards as you journey through small heritage towns, visit local art galleries and take in the extensive history of the area, including the Burra Monster Mine and the Riverton Railway Station.

OUR TOP TIPS

- Hire a bike and explore the natural beauty found along the Riesling Trail
- Visit the recently refurbished Pikes Wines cellar door and restaurant
- Step back in time while staying in a historic Miner's Cottage in Burra
- Take in the impressive view from the Quarry Hill Lookout
- Stop by the famous pink Lake Bumbunga on your way through to Clare

EYRE PENINSULA

Spectacular beaches, bushland landscapes & sumptuous seafood

Escape to the Eyre Peninsula for a relaxing coastal getaway among some of the state's most stunning and secluded beaches, remote country landscapes and never-ending coastline of rugged limestone cliffs. Explore one of the many natural preservation areas including Lincoln National Park which overlooks the glorious Boston Bay – the largest natural harbour in the country.

Make the most of the area's water-based adventures by challenging your fears with a shark-cage dive, swimming with friendly sea lions or giant cuttlefish, spotting frolicking whales or taking a tour of a Coffin Bay oyster farm.

With the region providing some of the state's best seafood, you'd be mad not to sample this fresh produce (especially the famous Coffin Bay oysters), all paired with local wines. Try your hand at catching your own food in what is considered one of the finest fishing areas in Australia.

OUR TOP TIPS

- Tour a Coffin Bay oyster farm followed by a fresh-as-can-be tasting
- Come face-to-face with Great White Sharks while cage-diving in Port Lincoln
- Pack a picnic and make the most of untouched and secluded beaches
- Enjoy fresh seafood and local wine with a view of the ocean at Sarin's Bar & Restaurant, Port Lincoln

FLEURIEU PENINSULA

Picturesque coastal towns & home to McLaren Vale

Acquaint yourself with the area via a relaxing, scenic drive through popular wine regions full of vineyards, past the never-ending beaches and through small country towns. When travelling between the coastal communities of Victor Harbour and Goolwa, don't forget to make a stop in Port Elliot where you'll find one of the best bakeries in the state, the Port Elliot Bakery.

Make the most of the many popular coastal spots, from snorkelling at the Port Noarlunga Jetty, to driving up the long stretch of sand at Sellicks Beach to find a more secluded section to enjoy. Go that bit further to Second Valley where you'll find plenty of coastal activities to partake in, set against the backdrop of rolling hills and jagged cliffs.

Best known for its production of Shiraz, the McLaren Vale wine region also provides ultra-premium Grenache and Cabernet which can all be tried at a variety of cellar doors dotted around the area. You'll also find a range of dining options for everybody and every budget, from sharing a pizza at the popular Pizzateca to enjoying a full degustation menu with paired wines at the d'Arenberg Cube Restaurant.

OUR TOP TIPS

- Wander around a local market and discover fresh produce and unique wares
- Explore the popular wine region of McLaren Vale, including the world-famous d'Arenberg Cube
- Retreat to a cosy cottage or lakehouse for a refreshing weekend away
- Swim with large Southern Bluefin Tuna next to Granite Island

McLaren Vale MCLAREN VALE AND GLENELG SIGHTSEEING

We head straight to the stunning McLaren Vale wine region where we visit Chapel Hill Winery for a structured tasting. We travel through the Vale and catch some glimpses of d'Arenberg's famous "Cube" before arriving in the main street of McLaren Vale.

Here there is the opportunity to visit Hardy's for more wine tasting, the Fruchocs factory for a well known sweet treat or, sample some tasty almond varieties at the Almond Train.

We finish our visit to McLaren Vale in the rustic cellar door of the Shingleback winery where we sample some of their award winning wines.

We return to Adelaide via the beautiful bay of Glenelg where you can enjoy a stunning seaside stroll before heading home. We return to Adelaide by approximately 5:30pm however, if you would like to enjoy the view of the sunset over the coast there is the option for you to leave the tour here and get the tram back to Adelaide.

FLINDERS RANGES

South Australia's outback at its finest

Journey further north to experience the untouched natural beauty of the Flinders Ranges where the night sky is full of stars and walking tracks will take you through isolated sections of Australia's iconic bushland. Here, dusty outback roads will lead you to secluded retreats, spectacular 4WD tracks and impressive hiking trails.

Spot wild kangaroos, emus and other iconic Australian animals going about their day as you explore the mighty rural region. With the Flinders Ranges holding the title of the largest mountain ranges in South Australia, there are plenty of natural sights to take in including the natural amphitheatre of Wilpena Pound, followed by a night of incredible stargazing.

Just because you're in the bush it doesn't mean you need to sacrifice on luxury, with accommodation options for those who prefer the finer things in life. The area also caters for those keen to get closer to nature or those travelling on a budget with something for everyone.

OUR TOP TIPS

- Experience the splendour of the Flinders Ranges from above on a scenic flight
- Get back to nature by staying in a luxury glamping Ikara safari tent
- Explore the wonders of the Flinders Ranges via a multitude of 4WD tracks and walking trails
- Delve deeper into Indigenous culture with an experienced guide

RIVERLAND

Majestic cliffs, beautiful parks & amazing landscapes

With the Murray River weaving its way through majestic cliffs and splashes of lush greenery, there are plenty of reasons why the Riverland is such an iconic South Australian holiday destination.

From Blanchetown to Berri and Barmera, there are plenty of spots to explore in the relaxing Riverland region. Spend the morning competing against the locals at the Renmark Golf Club, enjoy a filling lunch at Mallee Estate Winery and then settle in to watch the sun set upon the river's raised red cliffs.

If a more exciting adventure is what you're after, then make the most of the massive Murray River. Grab a kayak and explore more hidden spots, water-ski your way up and down the waterway or give kite surfing a go.

Make the most of your location and settle yourself on the water in a comfortable houseboat or secure a spot on the riverbank and watch the variety of boats go by. For those after an even more unique form of accommodation, take a step back in time on board one of the Murray's iconic paddle steamers.

OUR TOP TIPS

- Forget waterside – stay on the river itself by hiring a houseboat
- Wander through the biggest winery and distillery in the southern hemisphere at Berri Estates
- Marvel at the view of one of the world's longest rivers from Headings Lookout
- Take a guided tour via kayak of the nature-filled waterways
- Try your luck fishing off the picturesque Marion Bay Jetty

YORKE PENINSULA

A break as relaxing or as active as you choose

Venture that bit further from the city for a relaxing coastal escape on the Yorke Peninsula. From catching some surf to wandering through local art galleries and exploring the region's interesting past, there's plenty to do in this area affectionately known as 'Yorkes'.

Make the most of the fresh seafood available at many local eateries, such as the Wallaroo Coopers Alehouse, before visiting Barley Stacks Wines (the Yorke Peninsula's first cellar door) for a tasting. Stop by Port Broughton to experience Palate to Palette where you'll find freshly-brewed coffee paired with inspiring local art.

Immerse yourself in the area's history with a visit to the abandoned historic remains at Inneson Village, of what once was a thriving mining town, as well as the remains of an abandoned gypsum town along the Inneson Historic Walk.

Dive or drive and experience the Investigator Strait Shipwreck Trail which starts at Edithburgh and winds its way around the coast to Innes National Park. Here, you'll find an abundance of wind-swept landscapes and local wildlife that can be safely explored via both easy walking trails and four-hour treks.

OUR TOP TIPS

- Walk or cycle the Yorke Leisure Trail for spectacular cliff views, pristine beaches and secluded coves
- Take a break from city-life in a coastal holiday cottage, tourist park or apartment
- Visit the Cape Spencer Lighthouse and watch the sun set over the ocean
- Spot native wildlife, like emus and kangaroos, while exploring Innes National Park

NEW SOUTH WALES & AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY

So much to see & do, one trip is never enough

With one of the most famous harbours in the world, Sydney provides one of the best spots in the country to grab a drink or bite to eat and enjoy such an iconic view. But the state also provides plenty more to enjoy, including famous beaches (and some that are local secrets), award-winning restaurants and regional natural beauty.

Indulge your creative side at the well-known Art Gallery of New South Wales or Museum of Contemporary Art as well as independent smaller galleries dotted amongst local cafes and old-fashioned townhouses. Spend an afternoon at famous Bondi Beach or visit Manly Beach and its bustling shoreline.

Escape the city and venture out to the calming seclusion of the Blue Mountains where the imposing Three Sisters will take your breath away or take a tour of the Hunter Valley for a taste of the local wines.

Australia's capital city of Canberra in the Australian Capital Territory is a unique destination with picturesque streets, a thriving dining scene and of course home to Parliament House and Embassy Drive. Enjoy the territory's natural elements as well with an afternoon spent canoeing along stunning Lake Burley Griffin, or perhaps wandering through the Tidbinbilla Nature Reserve.

OUR TOP TIPS

- Sip world-class wine on a tour of the spectacular Hunter Valley
- Be rewarded with the best view of the city after climbing to the top of the Sydney Harbour Bridge
- Explore the Blue Mountains and ancient Jenolan Caves
- Watch the sun set on the Sydney Opera House while cruising the most famous harbour
- Experience the iconic annual spring event that is Floriade in Canberra
- Wander through the National Gallery of Australia in our country's capital of Canberra

NORTHERN TERRITORY

It's about time you did the NT

Not only does the Northern Territory provide some of the most iconic Australian outback landscapes in the country, but also a tropical paradise in Darwin and two World Heritage-listed National Parks. It is a foodie's dream with eateries featuring authentic food from a variety of countries. Discover one of the many bustling local markets and explore the city's extensive military history on an informative tour.

There are also plenty of day trips from Darwin including a visit to Litchfield National Park and its abundance of waterfalls, massive Cathedral Termite Mounds and ancient Aboriginal rock art. Head in the opposite direction on a ferry ride to the Tiwi Islands where you'll learn why they call it the 'Isle of Smiles'. Explore even more with a couple of days in Kakadu, Australia's biggest National Park.

In the Red Centre, a visit to the iconic Uluru is a must, alongside experiencing the Field of Light, star-gazing in the clear night skies and observing Kata-Tjuta (the Olgas).

Alice Springs is a true oasis in the Australian desert where you can spend the morning observing contemporary Aboriginal art and the afternoon swimming in the West MacDonnell Ranges at Ellery Creek Big Hole.

OUR TOP TIPS

- Come face to face with giant crocodiles at Crocosaurus Cove in the Cage of Death.
- Marvel at a clear outback night sky in the Red Centre
- Take in a spectacular Top End sunset while enjoying dinner on a cruise of Darwin Harbour
- Cross the ocean to the Tiwi Islands for an immersive cultural and artistic experience
- Experience all that is nature in the vast Kakadu National Park

QUEENSLAND

Outback, surf, city & the iconic Great Barrier Reef

Truly the state where you can find a bit of everything, Queensland is abundant in a diverse range of experiences with something for everyone, from animal encounters and waterfall escapes to nightlife hubs and thrilling theme parks.

Brisbane provides a hub within the state for great food and vibrant culture, while the glittering Gold Coast is hailed as not only the nightlife capital, but also a family-friendly vacation spot with plenty of theme parks the kids (and adults) will love. Kick back and relax in Palm Cove or Noosa – the perfect paradise havens for a tropical escape.

Nature lovers can spend their days exploring luscious rainforests, snorkelling on the Great Barrier Reef and whiling away the afternoon in one of the state's many refreshing waterfalls. Australia Zoo will delight travellers with animal experiences like no other, plus there are plenty of Australian animals to spot in the wild including the distinctive Southern Cassowary.

OUR TOP TIPS

- Take a day tour through the World Heritage listed Daintree Rainforest to the mountain village of Kuranda
- Find Nemo and Dory while snorkelling the Great Barrier Reef
- Take in the city lights of Brisbane on a dinner cruise up the Brisbane River
- Spot the elusive platypus while exploring the under-water rainforest environment

TASMANIA

Charming & inviting with natural beauty at every turn

A hop, skip and jump across the Bass Strait and you'll find yourself exploring the natural marvels of the Apple Isle. Make sure to escape the bigger cities and immerse yourself in the state's calming countryside where you'll find a land of luscious forests, mesmerising waterfalls, towering peaks and an abundance of wildlife.

There's plenty of history to be found in Hobart, one of the oldest city's in Australia, alongside fresh produce, charming side streets and the scenic Hobart waterfront – a short walk from the centre of the city. Jump on a bus tour to gain further insight into the historic location which will also show you key destinations around the city such as the Cascade Brewery and Penitentiary Chapel.

Take a boat ride around the impressive basalt columns and vertical rock cliffs of Tasman Island while keeping an eye out for frenzies of albatrosses and diving gannets as well as pods of playful dolphins in the Tasman Peninsula.

Travel up north for a visit to dramatic Cradle Mountain in the Tasmanian Wilderness World Heritage Area where lodgings within the rich and diverse vegetation will transport you to a completely new world.

OUR TOP TIPS

- Find trinkets, treasures and treats at the Salamanca Markets every Saturday
- Uncover the fascinating history of Australia's convicts at the Port Arthur Historic Site
- Travel on the camouflage MR-1 ferry to MONA (Museum of Old and New Art) where you can explore the world of modern art
- Relax in a remote lodge surrounded by nature and local wildlife at Cradle Mountain
- Indulge in an immersive guided holiday and visit unique Tasmanian spots otherwise missed

WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Australia's largest state with endless places to see

Occupying a massive third of Australia with stretching beaches of white sand, gourmet wine regions, vast red deserts and unique rock formations, Western Australia is the perfect place to explore.

With its food and culture scene continuing to grow, Perth is becoming a vibrant hub that rivals any other Australian capital city. Swan Valley provides an easy to reach wine destination while Fremantle buzzes with popular cafes, bars and restaurants. Get into action with plenty of water sports and activities on offer, plus from September to December you also have the chance to spot mighty humpback whales near the Perth coast.

Hop across the water to the isolated Rottnest Island where you will not only enjoy secluded beaches and captivating flora and fauna, but also the quokka which has been labelled the "happiest animal in the world".

Venture further up the impressive WA coastline towards Broome and partake in a pearl farm tour where you'll gain an interesting insight into the process of modern cultured pearl making at Willie Creek Pearls. Broome itself not only has an interesting history to discover but is also a great base to further explore the wonders of the stunning Kimberley region.

OUR TOP TIPS

- Meet friendly quokkas on Rottnest Island and grab a memorable selfie
- Explore Perth's burgeoning food and wine scene in Northbridge and Subiaco
- Jump on a tour to visit unique natural formations like Wave Rock and Hippo's Yawn
- Head to the renowned wine region of Margaret River for a gourmet escape
- Take an award-winning pearl farm tour and witness oysters in their natural environment

Liability: To the extent permitted by law, neither Holidays of Australia Pty Ltd nor any of its related bodies corporate, directors, employees or agents accept any liability in contract, tort or otherwise for any injury, damage, loss (including consequential loss), delay, additional expense or inconvenience caused directly or indirectly by the acts, omissions or default, whether negligent or otherwise, of third party providers over whom we have no direct control, force majeure or any other event which is beyond our control or which is not preventable by reasonable diligence on our part. Our liability will also be limited to the extent that any relevant international conventions, for example the Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of the provision of accommodation, limit the amount of compensation which can be claimed for death, injury, or delay to passengers and loss, damage and delay to luggage. Under circumstances where our liability cannot be excluded and where liability may be lawfully limited, such liability is limited to the remedies required of us under applicable law (including the Australian Consumer Law). This liability clause is subject to your rights under the Australian Consumer Law and nothing in these terms and conditions is intended to limit any rights you may have under the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth).
